Hello Daniel,

I know we spoke briefly, but I'm writing to congratulate on winning the Creative Prize in the 2010-2011 Freshman Writing Award. You will receive official correspondence regarding the following, but I wanted to update you on what happens next.

We will have a luncheon to honor the winners, and each winner is allowed to bring one guest. The luncheon will be Friday, April 8, 2011 at 12:00p in the Alumni House Dining Room. Please let me know if you will be attending and if you will bring a guest. I hope you can make it.

Also, in order for us to write a check for your prize money, we need your social security number. I would appreciate it if you could call me (my number is below) or stop by the Writing Center to get it to me. You can be assured that once we no longer need it, we will destroy your social security number.

Thank you and congratulations again.

Roshaunda
